Hazard Citizens Band Club Decides To Use Channel 9

The Hazard Citizens Band Club met on Thursday night, July 16. They passed several resolutions and decided on good radio practices for all citizen band operators in the Hazard Area.

It was decided by the twelve members present that they would use channel 9 to make contact, then switch channels to keep channel 9 open.

If no other channel is available, than channel 9 may be used as a gcb channel and the message can not be any longer than three minutes.

It was also decided that there would be a new station established that would monitor channel 11 on an 24 hour basis. This is for use in getting help or for getting information when they cannot reach any other unit. We ask that no one use channel 11 except for this purpose.

Signs are to be placed throughout the area that will read Hazard C. B. Club Monitor 9, 24 hour monitor on Channel 11.

A directory will also be printed of the club members with their names, addresses, call sign, and telephone number. The 10-code will also be in the directory available to club members.

Citizen Band Operators are urged to join the club for the members feel it has much to offer and that anyone can profit greatly from the program. The club meets each third Thursday of the month.

Steele's Dept. Store Destroyed By Fire; One Fireman Injured

A raging fire swept through a Main Street building Saturday evening shortly after 6 p. m., completely destroying Steele's Department Store and heavily damaging others by smoke and water.

The Saturday fire was the third major fire on Main Street in less than a year.

The Hazard Fire Department was called to the scene at 6:10 p.m. by Chester Robertson, a Perry County Deputy Sheriff who saw smoke shooting up from the building, according to the Hazard Fire Chief Lawrence "Shorty" Sizemore.

"The fire started in the rear of Steele's Department Store," Sizemore said. "But the cause of the fire has not been determined. We had the fire under control about 7 p.m."

The Fire Department remained at the site for another two hours to see that the fire did not ignite again.

The department store had been closed only ten minutes before the building was engulfed by flames, according to officials.

No one was in the buildings at the time of the fire but one volunteer fireman was slightly injured, fighting the blaze. John Barron Cooner slipped and fell inside the second story of the building over Steele's Department Store and cut his hand on a window pane.

The Western Auto Store was damaged heavily by smoke and water according to Chief Sizemore. Also receiving smoke and water damages were the offices of I. A. Bowles, Paul Petery, and Ernest Faulkner and Beams Electric Company.

Lettie Steele, owner of Steele's Department Store, said that no estimate has been made on the damages but that everything was completely destroyed. She also stated that she was going to rebuild as soon as possible.

On August 1, 1963, the Virginia Theatre was completely destroyed and damages totaled more than $200,000.

The second major blaze happened less than a month ago when 32 people were left homeless as a fire razed two buildings owned by Mr. and Mrs. Supermarket was burned.

Smallpox Remains a Threat

Three - Fourths of Population Not Protected

"The fact that smallpox has been rare in the United States for some time has led to neglect of vaccination in many instances. It is estimated that at least three-fourths of our population do not have adequate protection against the disease," reports Dr. Lyndon F. Combs of Perry County Health Department.

Effective prevention of smallpox by vaccination was discovered more than a century and a half ago. Yet today almost 100,000 cases of this global disease are reported annually to the World Health Organization. "Furthermore, it appears to be afflicting increasing numbers of people," Dr. Combs emphasized today. "Nearly twice as many people died from the disease in 1963 as in 1962. Up to November 29, 1963, more than 25,000 deaths were reported around the world, compared with approximately 14,000 during all of 1962."

"Although most cases of this highly contagious disease are now located in countries south of the equator, the frequency and speed of international travel have increased the risk to northern countries, including the United States.

An ever-present problem is that the virus can be transmitted to others before any signs of the disease appears. As an official of the American Medical Association recently warned, "The danger that smallpox will be brought in by an international traveler is ever present. One infected person could touch off a hundred cases before it's even known the disease is in the country."

Serious outbreaks of the disease have recently occurred in Sweden and England as a result of infected persons entering these countries and spreading the infection among susceptible people. In New York City, a boy who arrived on a this preventable disease strike plane from overseas stopped over on his way to Canada. Later it was found that he had become infected with smallpox shortly before departure from abroad, though he had shown no signs of the disease on arrival at the John F. Kennedy International Airport. Quick action by Public Health Service Officers prevented what might have been a serious outbreak of the disease here. This action involved a rapid, widespread investigation of hundreds of people who were possibly exposed to the infection, as well as numerous vaccinations of those found susceptible to the disease.

This year and next, many welcome visitors from abroad will attend the World's Fair, mingling with other visitors from all parts of the United States. Despite the constant vigilance of health officers, it is possible for recently infected persons from overseas to infect susceptible individuals here. International Vaccination Certificates are required of all persons entering the United States, but these are not always valid.

Physicians recommend that children be vaccinated during their first year of life. In addition, many states require that children be vaccinated before entering kindergarten or first grade. Further because the individual duration of protection varies it is recommended that vaccination be done at least every five years.

Don't run the risk of having this preventable disease strike you and your family. Keep a record of all vaccinations and consult your doctor.

Officials Say Crappie Catch Is Increasing

Increased catches of crappie at night in most of the lakes are reported by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. They are being taken deep around fallen treetops where they have schooled, according to conservation officers. Black bass fishing has improved slightly and bluegill catches continue generally fair. A lake rundown shows:

Dale Hollow—Bluegill in inlets and bays on worms; white bass by still fishing at night with minnows at 30 feet and in scattered jumps; black bass by casting artificial nightcrawlers, by fly fishing and trolling. Temperature 82, clear and falling slowly.

Nolin Reservoir—Black bass by casting surface lures and by trolling medium deep runners; bluegill around rocky areas on worms. Temperature 84, clear and rising slowly.

Rough River—Bluegill best on worms and by fly casting in rocky areas; black bass by casting purple nightcrawlers and by trolling; crappie in tributaries on minnows at 12 feet. Temperature 80, clear and stable.

Herrington—Bluegill on worms by drift fishing along deep banks, mostly on crickets; black bass by casting artificial worms and by trolling; crappie around docks on minnows mostly at night at 15 to 20 feet. Temperature 83, clear and falling slowly.

Combs Methodist Church Damaged By Fire Recently

The Methodist Church at Combs was recently damaged by fire. Damage was estimated at over $200,000. The people of the church thought that they had insurance that would be sufficient to cover this damage, but they found that their insurance company would only pay $69,000 on the damage.

They are now trying to raise enough money to paint the entire church as it would look odd with only one side painted, and to put one half of the roof on the building that was melted by the fire on adjoining property and will also replace windows in the side that was damaged.

They are in need of financial help on this project as the building is becoming damaged more and more through the leaking roof.

Dawahares' Ladies Bowling Team

Ratliff Stars As Pepsi Cola Wins

Pepsi-Cola banged out only five hits but scored nine runs and dealt the Peoples Bank team their second straight setback Saturday evening at Collins Field with a 9-0 win.

The loss by Peoples Bank and the win by M & M kept the Bankers from clinching the league title again. M & M are only two games out of first place with two games remaining for each team.

Peoples Bank broke on top in the first inning with a three-run uprising including a double by Jackie Benning for a 3-0 lead.

Pepsi Cola came back in their half of the first and cut the lead to 3-2 on five base on balls.

The Wellsmen added two more tallies in the second on two walks and a single by Benning as Joe Wells' team jumped to a 5-2 lead.

The "For Those Who Think

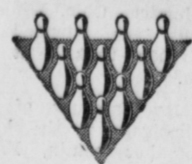

Young" team finally caught up with Peoples Bank in the last of the sixth when the Bankers held a 7-5 margin entering the initial stanza.

The first man up for Pepsi was hit by a pitch and Baker reached first on an error. Singles by Williams and Ratliff and a double by Perkins brought home four runs and Pepsi Cola commanded a 9-7 lead.

Peoples Bank made another threat in the top of the seventh on a walk to Olinger and back-to-back doubles by Lunce and Douglas but the Bankers' rally fell one short and Pepsi collected the 9-8 victory.

She is only the third person to win the Jackpot at Perry Bowl. Ella's deadly accurate shot left her $100 richer and a chance to defend her title this Sunday night.

Previous winners of the Jackpot Spare are Troy Brashear and Bill Douglas.

Other members of the squad are Bill Perkins, Bobby Walters, Abe Gay, Russell Watkins, John Dixon, Glenn Reynolds, and Charlie Freeman.

Gays Cr. Bows 9-8

Marvin Meadows pitched a perfect game for five innings but had to hold on for a slim 9-8 Lothair victory in a game with Gays Creek that accumulated 22 hits and six errors.

Every Lothair player got at least one hit with Marvin Meadows, Jimmy Hall, and Gene Smith getting two hits each.

Lothair grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first inning and added four more to their lead in the third and extended the margin to 9-0 in the bottom of the fifth.

Gays Creek opened the door in the sixth and scored five times and cut the Lothair lead to 9-5.

Gays Creek's rally for victory in the seventh fell one short as Lothair held on for a 9-8 win.

University of Kentucky News Notes

A University of Kentucky geographer, Dr. P. P. Karan, is on a 760-mile trek, mostly on foot, across the Himalayan mountains of Asia to gather data for the U. S. Army.

He will prepare a report on geographic, economic, political, social and religious conditions in the Bhutan Himalayas. This includes the region bordering on Tibet. He will make, insofar as possible, a detailed study and analysis of the inner Himalayan regions which eventually may become of strategic importance to the Army.

Dr. Carlisle Hammonds has retired after 40 years on the faculty of the University of Kentucky College of Education. A teacher for 51 years, he joined the UK faculty in 1924 and a year later became head of the Department of Agricultural Education.

Since 1947 he has been chairman of the Division of Vocational Education. In a recent interview, Dr. Hammonds stated his conviction that, regardless of criticism that has been heaped on schools recently, teachers are better today than ever and will continue to improve.

The Department of Psychology at the University of Kentucky has been awarded a training grant of $50,772 by the National Institute of Mental Health. The award, which is a continuation of an earlier grant, will provide stipends for UK graduate students who have chosen clinical psychology as an area of concentration. It also will support staff positions of those who work directly in the graduate clinical training program.
